SEVENTEENTH WEST VA. INFANTBY.

The Seventeenth is the last regiment sent to the field by the State of West Virginia. The organization was commenced in 1864, but not completed until Feb. 1865. The first six companies being mustered in Sept. 10th, 1864, and the ing mustered in Sept. 10th, 1864, and the remaining four companies Feb. 22d, 1865. It is composed principally of men from Marshall, Marion, Preston, Monorongalia and Taylor counties. Office county is also pretty well represented in its ranks but not so largely as the counties named. Owing to its recent organization the regiment has not participated in the many important engagements of the late campaign, but has been stationed on the border where it rendered most efficient service in securing and protecting the frontier from the incursions of the guerrilla hordes which infested the border counties of the State. This arduous and important duty was well performed by the Seventeenth, thus enabling the older and more experienced troops to be employed against the discipline for the first property. the Seventeenth, thus enabling the older and more experienced troops to be employed against the disciplined forces of the enemy. The regiment now numbers about nine hundred and fifty nien, all fine, hearty stalwart fellows. Indeed the personel of the Seventeenth will compare very favorably with that of any regiment in the service. The following list embraces all the officers of the regiment as it now stands.

SOLDIERS DINNER - The soldiers' dinner, yesterday afternoon, was a splendid affair. The liberal donations of the citizens, and the efficient aid rendered by the ladies, enabled the rendered by the ladies, enabled the committee to set out an elegant repast. The tables were laid for eighteen hundred men. The troops present consisted of the First West Virginia cavalry, Seventeenth infantry and battery C, 1st light artillery. The usual welcome was extended by the Governor, and was responded to by Gen. Capehart. Owing to our remote position we were unable to hear the remarks of the speakers. It had been expected that the Eleventh infantry would also be present, but having been paid off sooner than was anticipated they left for home without waiting for the entertainment. Every thing passed off pleasantly, and every body seemed pleased.

APPRAY.-Yesterday an affray occurred on Main Street, near the Suspension Bridge, in which one man was very severely beaten by another. There are several versions of the affair, and we are unable to give a complete statement. One of the men was a soldier, belonging to one of the cavalry regiments; the other is represented by some as a discharged soldier; others say he claimed to have belonged to the rebel army; as related to us, he and the soldier had some words, when he drew a knife and attempted to cut or stab the cavalryman; he then run, and was pursued and overtaken, when he was very severely beaten. several versions of the affair, and we

NOTICE. SALE OF ARMY MULES

When disposed of at public auction at Washington.
The sales will conlinue until the number of animals is reduced in proportion to the reduction of the armies, now going on mpidity. There are in the armies or the Potomac, of the Tennessee, and of Georgia, probably FOUR THOUSAND OF THE KINEST SIXMULE TEAMS IN THE WORD.
Many of them were bought in the beginning of the war, as young mules, accompanied the armies in all their marches and camps, and are thoroughly broken, hardened by exercise, gentle and familiar, from being so long surrounded by the soldlers.
The whole South is stripped of farming stock, and the North also has suffered from the drain of animals, taken to supply the armies.
These animals are sold at public anction:

I. Street, General Western Agents for the above Mowers, would inform the Farmers of this section that these Machines have been improved years by year, until they are now a perfect Mowing Machine.

We warrant them to be the lightest draft,
most durable, simplest and most easily managed, least liable to get out of order and cleanest cut of all the two horse mowers made.
